Octavia Butler's Lilith's Brood trilogy (Dawn [1987], Adulthood Rites [1988], and Imago [1989]) and its reception As a discipline, sociobiology is most readily understood by EO Wilson's definition in his seminal Sociobiology (1975): "the systematic study of the biological basis of ...

ETHNO-MATERNALISM IN OCTAVIA BUTLER'S KINDRED AND ...

Within her novels, Kindred and Lilith's Brood, Octavia Butler uses the idea of ethno-maternity to explore the ways in which matrilineal relationships between black women can act as way to break free from white supremacist heteropatriarchal structures and allow black women full subjectivity Between these two texts, Butler explores the
